Public Relations Major Overview:

The Public Relations major focuses on managing and shaping the image and reputation of organizations, brands, or individuals. Students learn the fundamentals of communication strategies, media relations, crisis communication, digital PR, and event planning. The program emphasizes writing, strategic thinking, and media engagement skills, preparing graduates for careers in PR, corporate communications, marketing, and media. Graduates are equipped to develop and execute PR campaigns, manage client relationships, and navigate the complexities of public perception and media coverage.

Typical Industry Sectors:

- 1. Public Relations and Communication Agencies
- 2. Corporate Communications
- 3. Media and Journalism
- 4. Government and Public Affairs
- 5. Nonprofit and Advocacy Organizations

10 Sample Entry-Level Job Titles:

- 1. Public Relations Assistant
- 2. Media Relations Coordinator
- 3. Communications Specialist
- 4. Social Media Manager
- 5. PR Coordinator
- 6. Event Coordinator (Corporate or Nonprofit)
- 7. Marketing Communications Assistant
- 8. Content Writer/Copywriter
- 9. Crisis Communications Assistant
- 10. Brand Assistant

5 Hard Skills:

- 1. Media Writing and Press Release Creation
- 2. Social Media Strategy and Management
- 3. Strategic Communication Planning
- 4. Event Planning and Management
- 5. Knowledge of PR and Media Analytics Tools

5 Soft Skills:

- 1. Communication (Written and Oral)
- 2. Creativity
- 3. Problem-Solving

- 4. Time Management
- 5. Interpersonal Skills

Additional Training or Certifications:

While a degree in Public Relations provides a strong foundation, graduates often pursue certifications such as the Accreditation in Public Relations (APR) or digital marketing certifications to enhance their qualifications. Internships in PR agencies, marketing departments, or media companies offer hands-on experience and valuable industry connections. Some graduates also pursue further training in specialized areas like social media analytics, branding, or crisis communication to improve their career prospects.

Student and National Organizations:

- 1. Public Relations Society of America (PRSA)
- 2. International Association of Business Communicators (IABC)
- 3. National Communication Association (NCA)
- 4. Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA)
- 5. The Arthur W. Page Society

