

INSTRUCTIONS:

ENG 200 APPLICATION

- A. Email this completed PDF application to trini.stickle@wku.edu by March 1, 5p for teaching eligibility the following AY.
- B. Include the email subject header "ENG 200 Teaching Application -Your Name".
- C. Item #6 asks you to identify two faculty references, but note that no letters of recommendation are required.
- D. Item #8 asks for two-written responses to be included on one, separate PDF in your application package.
- E. Eligibility requires having completed ENG 516 and having taught two sections of WKU ENG 100/100E or the equivalent course at another institution.
- F. A complete application will include a current CV, a tentative ENG 200 syllabus, a PDF with the two responses, and this completed PDF application in your email submission.

1. Full Legal Name

_____

Last	First	Middle/Maiden
------	-------	---------------

2. _____@topper.wku.edu _____

WKU Email Address

Student ID # (800/801)

3. Local Phone

4. List Program of study & Concentration MA (e.g., CW, Lit) year of study (e.g., yr 1, 2, 3)

5. Complete the following information:

- a. Graduate Credit hours completed
- b. Anticipated graduation date

6. List two faculty references (name and email):

7. List the collegiate-level courses you have taught and semesters.

Dept. and Numeric Prefix (e.g., ENG 100)	Title (e.g., Introduction to Composition)	Semester(s) taught (e.g., FA21):
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

8. Written Responses

On a separate document, please complete your responses to the following two prompts and save as a PDF to be included with your complete application package.

In ~200 words, describe your professional goals demonstrating how the opportunity to teach ENG 200 would help develop/prepare you to achieve those goals.

In ~300 words, describe your teaching philosophy as it relates to teaching ENG 200. Please consider the catalogue and the Foundations Guidelines for ENG 200 found on the WKU Department of English's website. <https://www.wku.edu/english/documents/instructors-guide-2223.pdf>