

ENG 203 APPLICATION

INSTRUCTIONS:

- A. Email this completed PDF application to trini.stickle@wku.edu by March 1, 5p, for SP course eligibility. Include the email subject header “ENG 203 Teaching Application -Your Name”.
- B. Item #6 asks you to identify two faculty references, but note that no letters of recommendation are required.
- C. Item #8 asks for two written responses to be included on one, separate PDF in your application package.
- D. Eligibility requires having taught two sections of ENG 100 or the equivalent course at another institution.
- E. A complete application will include a current CV, a tentative ENG 203 syllabus, a PDF with the two responses, and this completed PDF application in your email submission.

1. Full Legal Name

Last	First	Middle/Maiden

2. _____@topper.wku.edu _____
WKU Email Address Student ID # (800/801)

3. Local Phone

4. List Program of study & Concentration MFA (e.g., PW, Lit) year of study (e.g., yr 1, 2, 3)

5. Complete the following information:

- Graduate Credit hours completed
- Anticipated graduation date

6. List two faculty references (name and email):

7. List the collegiate-level courses you have taught and semesters.

Dept. and Numeric Prefix (e.g., ENG 100)	Title (e.g., Introduction to Composition)	Semester(s) taught (e.g., FA21):
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

8. Written Responses:

On a separate document, please complete your responses to the following two prompts and save as a PDF to be included with your complete application package.

In ~200 words, describe your professional goals demonstrating how the opportunity to teach ENG 203 would help develop/prepare you to achieve those goals.

In ~300 words, describe your teaching philosophy as it relates to teaching ENG 203, Introduction to Creative Writing.